SOUTH'S COMMERCE

Accepts Vice Presidency of Congress to Boom Trade of Southern States.

day of the selection of David R. Francis, day of the selection of David R. Francis, of St. Louis, as first vice president of the Southern Commercial Congress.

Mr. Francis was visited by a committee of the Congress, January 31, and, in accepting the first vice presidency, has agreed to take an active part in the labors of the executive committee.

His selection gives Missouri her only representative among the officers of the congress. The other States represented are Louisiana, North Carolina, Virginia, and Florida. The District of Columbia has the greatest number of representatives, including H. Grosvenor, managing director, and Charles A. Douglas and S. W. Woodward, members of the executive committee.
